

Support WPSU by Dining at Harrison's!

WPSU has partnered with Harrison's for a delicious fundraiser! When you visit Harrison's from September 9 through September 15, 20% of your food and beverage purchases will be donated back to WPSU. Participate as many times as you would like by dining in or ordering take-out during our fundraising week! Simply bring this flyer or mention your support to your server.

WPSU Penn State is a PBS and NPR member station and an Outreach service of Penn State University, supporting our community as a trusted source for news, information, and education. Our mission is to spark discovery, enrich learning, and strengthen community through vibrant public media.

The funds raised through this event will be used to support WPSU FM programming. Every donation counts, and this month you can help us continue our mission simply by dining at Harrison's!

For more information about WPSU's programming, events, and ways to support your public media station, visit www.wpsu.org.

Thanks for your support!
