

Arnaud Freddy Kumba from Gabon

Image from: <https://www.nationsonline.org/oneworld/gabon.htm>

Image from: <https://www.britannica.com/place/Gabon>

About Arnaud Freddy Kumba:

Arnaud Freddy Kumba comes from the country of Gabon, which is found on the western coast of Africa. He graduated with his Master's Degree in English studies, with a specialization in American Civilization. He currently works at the École Nationale de Commerce, or National Business School. Mr. Kumba lives with his wife and four children, two boys and two girls, in the South of Gabon.

Discussion Questions (same for each fellow):

1. What is the history of Gabon?
2. What types of natural environments are found in Gabon?
3. What types of animals are found in Gabon?
4. In addition to local languages, what is the primary language in Gabon?

5. What does a typical day look like for an adult in Gabon?

6. What are some typical foods eaten in Gabon?

7. What is school like in Gabon?

8. When do they have traditional religious ceremonies?

9. How many National nature reserves are there in Gabon?

10. What is the impression of the United States from television in Gabon? Is it the same as what Mr. Kumba experienced since arriving in State College?